

A. & S. E. Banquet.

Those who attended the base ball game at Don Luis missed the best part of the game. Seven innings were played at Don Luis on Friday. The remaining two innings were played at the Waldorf Saturday evening. Umpire Hamner called time promptly at 10:20, and for two hours the game was fast and furious. A. & S. E. boys who the day previous had fumbled the ball all over the lot found no difficulty in stopping a hot bird. The banquet was spread at the Waldorf, and was prepared under the direct supervision of Otto Geisenhofer. He received the order from the general office of the A. & S. E., and he had a clearance card to run past anything of the kind ever attempted by the base ball fans in the past. His orders were signed by Walter Douglas, manager, and R. C. Morgan, superintendent, and in this neat manner the company attested their appreciation of the young men in their employ, not as ball players, but for services rendered by a faithful and conscientious discharge of their every day duties.

After the cigars were passed around Mr. Hamner was called for and spoke of his appreciation of the courtesy extended to him on the grounds the day previous, and of his appreciation of that fairness and gentlemanly feature of the game so characteristic of all western sports. Toasts were responded to freely on both sides of the table. Dugan and Tehaney furnished the music. It was just a social, informal affair where the boys talked base ball to the exclusion of everything else. It was agreed unanimously that Bisbee must have a crack-a-jack ball team. V. R. Stiles was voted president and C. F. Nichols corresponding secretary, with Lee F. Hamner manager and P. J. Tehaney captain.

Promptly at 12 o'clock the boys stood in their places and toasted the young ladies of the Copper Queen store, who so valiantly championed their side at the diamond on Friday. Then came three cheers and a tiger for the A. & S. E., and it was finished.

The fans have woke up. What's more, they are going to stay awake all summer. Come along, Naco. Get your bran, bran new gown, for there's goin' to be a ball club in this good, good ole town.

Those present Saturday evening were: Messrs. Lillis, Bledsoe, Stillman, Tehaney, Jackson, Williams, Rogers, Stiles, Hughes, Smith, Rice, Marks, Rupert, Dugan, Wilson, Martinez, Shanks, Rydel, Haight, Callahan, Nichols, Moore, Hamner, Stiles, Darnall, and others.

Obituary.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bergquist, on Brewery avenue, was made desolate last week by the removal through death of their little three-year-old son, Clarence. He was bright, affectionate and the idol of the home. An attack of croup summoned him to his home on high. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the community in their affliction. Services were held by Rev. D. Roberts at the home and at the grave, where the grief-stricken ones left little Clarence to rest in peace.

Inez L. Bradley, aged three months, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bradley, of Naco, passed away Friday morning, February 22d, and was laid to rest in Bisbee cemetery Saturday, the 23d instant. The service, conducted by Rev. D. Roberts, was held at the grave, the sorrowing parents and intimate friends paying the last tribute to a loved one suddenly taken from them.

Visitors to Douglas.

The train leaves Bisbee for the new town of Douglas every morning at 9 o'clock. The train has been crowded each day during the present week with visitors to the new town, who look over the proposed location of the depot, custom houses, etc., and before they leave generally select a lot for building purposes. Purchasers of lots who begin the construction of a building immediately are allowed to pay for lots on the installment plan. Everyone seems to have entire confidence in the future growth and importance of the new town. Work on the Nacozari railroad is being pushed forward rapidly to the exclusion of everything else, as the saving in the transportation to the Nacozari Copper company will be a big item. It is expected that Robinson & Toohy will move their headquarters into Mexico the coming week.
